

Thorp Institute of Integrated Medicine, Inc.

Product Overview

Equipment	Description and Application	Modes	Size/Weight
Acuscope 80L	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Clinical laboratory table model• The latest release of the most advanced technology providing an input/output device designed for precise treatment• For chronic pain control, trauma rehabilitation, and accelerated healing• For those interested in treating the pain associated with disease• Utilizes an auto frequency scanning system for neurological/neuromuscular indications, sleep and stress disorders• Cycles up to 800 per second for pathogens or allergens	2	19" x 8" x 16" 22 lbs.
Acuscope 85P	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Portable model• A complete pain management system for sports and occupational medicine• For immediate post-surgical rehabilitation stimulation via an input/output device designed for precise treatment• Acts upon subcutaneous tissues and neurological issues to reduce pain and inflammation• Prevents or retards muscle atrophy• Offers therapeutic capabilities• For those interested in treating pain and disease• Includes 2 independent modes (dual output) allowing two locations/patients to be treated simultaneously	2	19" x 8" x 16" 22 lbs.

Myopulse 75L	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Clinical laboratory table model • The latest release of the most advanced technology in pain control and injury trauma rehabilitation, providing an input/output device designed for precise treatment • Controls even the most difficult pain, trauma, and injury cases, including a wide variety of muscle and connective tissue, bone and ligament problems, and soft or facial tissue • Tissue-controlled automatic frequency adjustment and expanded current and frequency • Calibrated to treat deep tissue 	2	19" x 8" x 16" 22 lbs.
Myopulse 75LN	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Designed for soft tissue micro muscle or facial use • Used by estheticians • Calibrated to treat surface tissue conditions such as wrinkles, non-surgical facial rejuvenation, brown spots, varicose veins, and scarring 	None	19" x 8" x 16" 22 lbs.
Neuroscope 230	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • For practitioners and personal home-care • Small, lightweight, and convenient for travel • Designed to treat a wide range of issues requiring lengthy therapy or treatment pre- and post-major surgery • May be used for Cranial Electrotherapy Stimulation (CES) without electrical sensation, for medical and physiological benefits • Successful in the treatment of anxiety, depression, migraine and stress headaches, symptoms of substance withdrawal, and insomnia • Within minutes, patients report a feeling of alertness, energy, ability to focus, and improved memory 	None	9.5" x 6" x 1.25" 1 lb. 10 oz.